Noriko's Story

Noriko Kishima (規島 紀子) is a calm, impeccable figure within T0K10's administration. Her rigor inspires both respect and fear. Responsible for approving expulsions, she applies the rules of the Universal System with cold precision, never showing a trace of doubt in public.

Yet behind that carefully maintained facade, Noriko quietly understands the consequences of her decisions. By arranging departures to exile zones near Ayame's camp, she subtly bends protocol to give some of the condemned a small but real chance. Outwardly loyal, she lives in a constant gray area, torn between her service to the System and her unbreakable bond with her sister.
